WINNIPEG, March 1.

Erasmus Wiman has pleaded not guilty. Manitoba legislature prorogued on Friday. Sir William Meredith, ex-chief justice of Quebec is dead.

Fire in the syndicate block, Brandon destroyed $25,000 worth of property.

The electors of North Simcoe have endorsed Dalton McCarthy in a public meeting.

The sleigh and horses sent to Princess May were presented yesterday by Lady Derby.

Drinking of Red River water has been forbidden in Winnipeg, owing to the presence of typhoid fever germs.

Two thousand unemployed men marched to the city hall in Toronto on Wednesday and demanded work or bread.

Probably that Lord Roscher will succeed Gladstone shortly. Gladstone's eye-sight is failing and an operation will be necessary.

Sam C. F. Fraser has retired from the Ontario cabinet on account of ill health. He has been a member of Macdonald's government for 19 years.

Lord Aberdeen has not yet signed Sir John Thompson's report to release McCreary and Connolly. He wants further medical testimony as to the state of their health.

The Dominion government has sent for premier Hamilton and Lieutenant governor Mackintosh to discuss the school ordinance, and to try and get them to make such changes as will smooth over the crisis which the Northwest excites in the Ottawa cabinet.

BATTLEFORD, February 27.

Sgt. Rudd has been transferred to Regina. Insp. Moodie is on a tour of inspection to Otonabee and Whitefish lakes.

Malcolm Young, manager for A. McDonald, is confined to his bed since last Friday.

Robert Latimer, clerk for Mahaffy & Finckish, has recovered from a short but severe illness.

Thos. Dewar has been awarded the contract for spring delivery of oats to the police detachment here.

Assistant commissioner McIlroy of the N. W. M. P. force is here since Saturday, inspecting this detachment.

N. Powerhouse returned from Winnipeg by last stage having bought the necessary machinery to start his creamery.

Jas. Clinkskill, M. L. A., has gone to Lethbridge, for a couple of weeks, in connection with the store his firm has there.

Reports from ranches around agree that this is a very good winter for stock of all kinds. Snow is not deep and weather nice.

LOCAL.

Mrs. Handley left on a visit to Morley on Tuesday's train.

M. McCaffrey left for Calgary on Tuesday's train to bring up a car load of horses.

The Edmonton agricultural society meets in the council chamber on Saturday afternoon.

Meeting to discuss the bridge question in the council chamber on Saturday evening at 7:30.

POTATOES are being brought to town during the present warm weather. The price is 24 to 35c.

Meeting to organize a wool growers association in the council chamber on Saturday afternoon.

T. G. HUTCHINGS, county organizer for the patrons of industry, left for the south on Friday's train.

It is proposed to form a stately labor district in the Whitson settlement south of Fort Saskatchewan.

Fancy Dress carnival in the Edmonton skating rink to-morrow night. Edmonton less band in attendance.

R. LOGAN arrived from Beaver lake on Tuesday on a business trip. The family of R. A. Mackenzie at Beaver lake has been suffering from scarlet fever and one young child died.

Ross Bros have put up a very handsome galvanised iron cornice on their store front. As an ornament to the building and street and as a sample of the work done inside the cornice is most effective.

ROSS & FORBES, general merchants of Fort Saskatchewan are dissolving partnership. John Stewart, late of Prince Albert and son of Mrs. Stewart of Clover Bar, has acquired Mr. Forbes' interest, and the firm will now be Ross & Stewart.

J. R. BRENTON has commenced digging the cellar for T. Cairns' brewery on Ross flat, south of the electric light station. The contract requires that the cellar be completed by April 1st. Mr. Brenton is also storing a large quantity of ice for the use of the brewery next summer.

The school house of White Mud school district in township 51, range 25 is nearly completed. The building is on the north-west corner of section 10 on the west bank of the White Mud creek. This district includes part of the German settlement south of Rabbit hill. The trustees are Angus McLeod, John Albert and Peter Volpel, Chas. Black, secretary.

The Medicine Hat Times contains the farewell of the editor and proprietor J. K. Drinnan, who has transferred his interests to the Medicine Hat publishing company, of which J. Niblock, divisional superintendent of the C. P. R., is the moving spirit. This is the outcome of the war which was declared by Mr. Niblock on Mr. Drinnan some time ago. The latter shows good judgment in gracefully retiring from the unequal contest.

The BULLETIN has received a sample of fall wheat and another of fall rye grown last season by J. P. Miller on section 24, township 52 range 1 west of the 5th meridian, on Stony Plain. The rye is clear, plump and well grown, but the wheat has evidently been cut too green and is somewhat shrunkened. The samples have been sent to the experimental farm at Ottawa. A number of the German settlers on the plain raise both fall wheat and fall rye and are well satisfied with their success so far.

TRAIN on time. MAYOR McCauley returns from Calgary to-night.

JAS. WALSH, shipped $903 worth of furs on Tuesday's train.

FIFTEEN entries in the Edmonton land office during February.

TO-DAY'S train brings 3 cars coal, 1 car horses, 3 cars way freight.

A CAV of horses for J. S. McDermott is on board of to-night's train.

G. W. McDONALD of the Edmonton Hardware Co. arrived from Calgary on Monday's train.

A VERY successful social dance was held in Robertson hall last night. About twenty couples were present.

R. SAGG purchased a lot of furs from E. Brunsen of St. Albert on Tuesday, the price being about $95.

ON Sunday last the attendance at the Presbyterian Sunday school was 72, the highest point yet reached.

DURING this week Jas. Walsh purchased the following lots of fur, W. G. Ross $25.25, R. Logan $21.50, Grant $6.75.

BRIGADIER MARGETTS of the Salvation Army will arrive on to-night's train and will be welcomed in St. James' Methodist church on the arrival of the train.

The following members of the Edmonton fire brigade have taken up their quarters in the fire hall: W. A. Oliver, Geo. Hall, J. Clark, B. Wilson, A. Milne, and W. J. Hunter.

The Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church have united to purchase a library of about 100 books, for joint use. The books will arrive in about two weeks.

F. MARIANO is making extensive improvements in the Alberta in preparation for spring travel. The office is being refitted and painted, and two sample rooms and eight bed rooms added.

Mrs. Reid arrived from Calgary on Monday's train on a visit to her sisters Mrs. P. V. GANVREAN of Edmonton and Mrs. DeGee of Whitefish lake. She left for Pagan and Whitefish lake on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Reid is editor and manager of the Calgary Herald. Mrs. Reid is a daughter of P. G. Laurie of the Battleford Herald.

FOUR tons of Horton's White Star coal were tested in the C. & E. engine on Friday last. The result was fairly satisfactory. In all particulars except that a larger bulk was consumed to make a certain distance than of the Connors coal which is generally used.

The White Star coal is cleaner to handle, makes a beautiful fire and the fire is easily kept up.

The hand stand of the Edmonton brass band has been removed from the race course to the grounds of the C. M. B. A. building on Third street, H. B. reserve. This is a much more convenient situation, and as the main drive of the town passes it and the street is sidewalked as well, more people will be able to enjoy the music of the band than formerly.

W. CARUTHERS, who was taken to Fort Saskatchewan on Monday as a lunatic is about 41 years of age and comes from Cumberland, England. He is a coal miner. He came to Edmonton in the summer of 1891, and has worked for some years for W. T. Rees. Two years ago he made a trip to Peace river. Last fall he entered into partnership with Alex. McDonald and the firm opened a coal mine on K. McDonald's property. Caruthers showed signs of insanity about four weeks ago and gradually became worse, first quitting work and finally becoming threatening. At two o'clock on Monday morning Mr. McDonald thought it desirable to secure police assistance, which he did, and Caruthers was taken in charge with the result already mentioned. His insanity is on religious matters.

Mrs. J. B. BEBBEE of Egg lake, was in town last week, accompanied by her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bebbie came from Rockford, Spokane County, Washington, and settled at Egg lake in 1892. They brought a large band of horses and a large quantity of effects. Their horses have done well, wintering out both this winter and last. The band was rounded up shortly before Mrs. Bebbie started for Edmonton and they were in excellent order. They had been ranging about thirty miles from the homestead. Mr. Bebbie is in Washington this winter settling up his affairs, and finds times very dull there. Owing to the wet fall millions of bushels of wheat has been damaged so that it is only worth from 15c to 25c a bushel. This makes very hard times for the Palouse country and many farmers will lose their farms to mortgages. The weather there has been very mild and rainy all winter, and Mr. Bebbie writes that he would much prefer the Edmonton winter to the universal mud.

JOHN SOLLIMAN, formerly of the township of Ryeoun in the Parry Sound district, and now of township 54, range 19, on the north east side of the Beaver hills, called on the BULLETIN on Tuesday to say that he had lived in Parry Sound district fourteen years. He came to Manitoba in April last, and remained all summer at Alexander some distance west of Brandon. In the beginning of winter he came to Edmonton and has lived in the Beaver river settlement since. He has found less snow this winter than is usual in the Parry Sound district. Part of the weather has been much finer. All in all the winter has been much better than is usual in the east. Cattle are wintering well without shelter, but fed on hay. He has seen a large band of horses wintering without either hay or shelter and doing well, on the grass which they reach by pawing the snow away. Near where he has been living reside Jas. Hackett, Alex. Hackett, John Campbell, Wm. Woodruff and others from the Parry Sound district, all of whom are well suited with the country. There are also Messrs. Burdeen and Drayton from Nebraska and Pahnky from Dakota, all well suited. Mr. Solliman will take up land for himself first thing in the spring and expects to be joined early in the season by his brothers now in Parry Sound. He is highly delighted with the Edmonton district on account of the abundance of timber and of good land as well and also with the winter climate.

Hot and thawing rapidly to-day.

THE Regina Leader recently did the BULLETIN the honor of reproducing almost in full and with due credit its article on "Newspaper business," coupled with the Leader's full endorsement of the arguments advanced.

T. ROBINSON is preparing to ship four car loads of fat cattle to the coast about March 20th. He is having hay pressed at the ranch at Cooking lake to feed them on the way. The cattle have been fed on hay and chopped stuff all winter and are in prime condition.

Two four-horse teams belonging to Jas. Dinner recently pulled in 400 bushels of oats each for T. W. Lines from St. Albert to Edmonton, a load of 15,000 pounds to each team. A few days before a single team drew 300 bushels in one load from Fielders warehouse to the building formerly occupied by the Imperial bank.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, MARCH 1st, 1894.

SCHOOLS AGAIN.

The Calgary Herald announces that it has not been able to discover from the columns of the BULLETIN or elsewhere what is particularly wrong about the present normal school regulations. No doubt a diagram would help the understanding of the Herald. But as most of the readers of the BULLETIN already understand the grounds of its objection to the regulations it is probably not necessary to incur the expense of providing a diagram on the Herald's sole account. Having evidently much the same privilege of access to departmental information possessed by the valourous but indiscreet J. J. Morgan, B. A., it proceeds to explain that no wrong was done in the case of the two schools in the Edmonton district mentioned by the BULLETIN. As the Herald does not throw any new light on these cases material to the point at issue it is not necessary to discuss them again further than to say that the information given by the Herald is of such a private nature as to make its publication very bad taste on its part to say the least, even though the officials of the department might, in the effort to secure backing for the injustice done under the regulations, see fit to divulge it. But the Herald need not come to Edmonton to find out regarding the peculiarities of these regulations. If the BULLETIN is not mistaken the Herald's own columns furnish an account of how the principal of the Calgary school was compelled to break off his duties in the middle of a term and go to Regina to attend the normal session for first and second class teachers held there in October. This may strike the Herald and the people of Calgary generally as having been a perfectly proper and even desirable proceeding. But it strikes the BULLETIN that if it was so urgently necessary that the teacher should attend that particular session at Regina he was scarcely fit for the position which he held in the Calgary school. On the other hand if he was fit for the position which he held in the school it was not so absolutely necessary that he should go to Regina. And again if he was so unfit to continue his ordinary work that he must break off his engagement in the middle of a term it is not reasonably probable that the amount of instruction which he could possibly acquire at Regina normal school in the time allotted would be sufficient to properly fit him for the high position he held. He either was compelled to go to Regina because he needed instruction—something very peculiar considering the position which he held and retained—or the regulations which put him to the cost and inconvenience of going there were unnecessary and unjust. The Herald might do a little profitable figuring on that case and give the public the result. The Herald is grieved at the insinuations "flung around in a very careless manner" by this paper. The BULLETIN did not fling around any insinuations carelessly or otherwise. It simply drew fair conclusions from statements made by an avowed champion of the education department, whose full confidence he apparently shared with the Herald. If the conclusions drawn are incorrect the blame should be laid on the person who so stated the cause which he advocated as to warrant their being drawn. The Herald particularly deprecates the possibility of members of the education department trafficking in teachers' positions. In this connection it says: "If the BULLETIN has in mind a certain—now happily defunct—institution which made it its business to interfere between the teachers and trustees we have nothing to say." So it appears that there was an institution which interfered between teachers and trustees, whose interference was objectionable in the Herald's eyes. Does the Herald object to the interference merely, or because the interference was for the sake of a commission? Really the Herald should be more careful how it flings around such accusations. Supposing interference between teachers and trustees was objectionable say two years ago, it is fair to suppose that it is quite as objectionable now. Or if the interference was with a view to a commission two years ago, will the Herald explain why the public at large are not at liberty to suppose that there may be a commission in it now. Will the Herald kindly peruse the following copy of a postal card received by a school trustee in the Edmonton district, and be good enough to say whether it considers the sending of such a missive objectionable interference or not.

"NORMAL SCHOOL, REGINA,
December 1st, 1893.

DEAR SIR,

There are fifty teachers holding first or second class certificates who will have completed a session at the normal school on December 22nd.

If you wish to secure one, please supply the information asked for below, and these teachers will correspond with you. Trustees having teachers under engagement are requested not to reply.

Yours truly,

D. J. GOGGIN.

(1) Name and distance from school of nearest railway station. (2) Length of school year. (3) Number of children usually in attendance. (4) Cost of board per month. (5) Male or female teacher. (6) Salary offered per month or year.

It may be mentioned that D. J. Goggin is at the head of the education department in Regina, and it is practically on his mandate that teachers' certificates are granted, extended or cancelled. When a gentleman holding this position interests himself in finding situations for the candidates attending the normal sessions conducted by him or under his control, it is likely that these parties will find situations, even at the cost of displacing teachers who have not had the good fortune to attend the sessions at Regina or Calgary, but who may have attended much better normal schools elsewhere. No doubt the normal sessions would become very popular (?) with teachers present and prospective in the Northwest under these circumstances. The situation is very similar to that on an occasion when the Emperor of Japan decided to start a newspaper. Accompanying the prospectus was a notice that every subject who did not subscribe at once and pay in advance would receive the happy despatch. Needless to say the paper was a howling success.

HAY.

It is not out of place the BULLETIN would suggest that the agricultural society take the opportunity that will be afforded by the meeting of Saturday next to discuss the question of hay privileges on government lands. The old regulations are abolished and are not replaced by anything except the privilege of leasing a certain small amount of hay land. There is no doubt that some features of the old regulations were very unsatisfactory, particularly that requiring a fee of $1 a ton on all hay cut for sale. This tax was simply an iniquity in this part of the country and served no good purpose. It led to no end of complications and difficulties and the minister who abolished it deserves the thanks of all men who need to cut hay on government land. The total abolition of all regulations is also a good thing in settling settlements where there is abundance of hay for all parties requiring it, and the necessity of securing a permit even at the small cost demanded for home use was an unnecessary trouble, not to say hardship. Of course in many cases the permits were not secured, but then the hay was liable to seizure. At the same time it must be acknowledged that in many cases, particularly where the country is fairly well settled, there is a necessity for the exercise of some authority that will protect the ordinary settler from a grasping or monopolizing neighbor. If all farmers could agree as to the proportion of available hay that each one should have there would be no necessity for government interference, but, in view of the well known tendencies of human nature, it seems impossible that all rules shall be declared off and yet the hay be equitably divided or indeed that serious friction be avoided. A difficulty in framing regulations that will meet the case arises from the fact that what would be desirable and necessary where hay is scarce in proportion to the number of settlers would be unnecessarily burdensome in districts where there was unquestionable abundance of hay for every one. This difficulty might be got over by selecting the townships in which disputes would be likely to occur, and provide regulations which would secure an equitable distribution of the hay within their limits, while the great unsettled or more sparsely settled area might be left untrammelled by regulations. The abolition of the old regulations shows that the government is willing to listen to the wishes of the settlers in this matter. No doubt it will be as willing to listen to such further suggestions as may seem desirable. The only parties to be suited in the matter are the farmers themselves, and if they say clearly what they want no doubt they will be accommodated before next haying season commences. Now is the time to discuss the matter, when discussions can be held without loss of valuable time, and when there is plenty of time to reach a conclusion as to what the country wants, and opportunity for the government to act on the suggestions offered before the next haying season commences. The Edmonton district is a most important part of the Northwest and the hay crop is of greater value and importance here than in any other section of the country. Therefore it is most desirable that the views of the district on this hay question should be represented in the proper quarters, for and at an early date so that whatever regulations are passed may be measurably suited to the conditions prevailing here rather than to the altogether different conditions throughout the greater part of the Territories. It is to be hoped that not only the Edmonton but also the St. Albert and Fort Saskatchewan agricultural societies will take this matter up and deal with it in the interests of the settlers of the district.

The result of the voting in the Whitwood election is that Joseph Clementson of Broadview is elected, having received 257 votes. The defeated candidates are W. T. Clements of Fairmeade, who received 171 votes, A. B. Potter of Montgomery who received 133 votes and J. Sumner of Sumner who received 66 votes. Messrs. Potter and Sumner lose their deposits. From the Regina Leader it is learned that Mr. Clementson was born in 1838 at Henley, Staff-shire, England. He came to Canada in 1882, at which time he settled at Broadview and started business there.

WHITE STAR MINE.

As the trouble between the coal miners at Black Mud siding has brought in question the respective rights of the parties interested, H. Horton desires to publish the following agreement, in support of his exercise of rights of priority.

SOUTH EDMONTON,
22nd January, 1894.

Mr. H. HORTON,
South Edmonton,
Alberta.

I John Morris of White Mud, in the Rabbit hill settlement, in the district of Alberta, miner, being lessee of the coal on the northwest one quarter of section twenty-five, in township fifty-one, in range twenty-five, west of the fourth meridian in the aforesaid district of Alberta do hereby agree to assign all my rights and privileges, according to my lease from the Canadian Pacific railway company for the working of said coal, in consideration of the sum of twenty cents per ton for all coal mined and disposed of from the aforesaid 22nd day of January, A. D., 1894, until the expiration of my lease from the aforesaid railway company, to Henry Horton of South Edmonton, in the aforesaid district of Alberta, merchant.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed by hand and seal on the day first above mentioned.

Signed at South Edmonton, in the presence of JOHN MORRIS.
WILLIAM WILKIE.

News of Edmonton and surrounding up to hour of issue.

News of the world by telegraph up to day of issue and from two to five days ahead of any other paper reaching Edmonton.

Controlled only by the proprietor and therefore always ready and willing to speak out for the good of the town and district.

THE BULLETIN is read more generally throughout the Edmonton district than any other paper.

If you want to do business in the Edmonton district you can reach more of the people with a less expenditure of money through the advertising columns of the BULLETIN than by any other means.

Fair advertising rates charged, and like rates to all parties.

No advertising of a questionable nature admitted if its character is known.

THE BULLETIN Printing office is second to none in the Territories. Only first-class type, machinery and paper employed. Printing of all kinds done promptly, neatly and cheaply. Call and see samples of work, and get prices before ordering your printing elsewhere.

A newspaper is not a producing industry, but if properly conducted it assists and stimulates production and progress more than any other single agency of like cost. Money spent towards the support of a newspaper is almost entirely spent within the town in which the paper is published and is therefore not lost to the business of the town.

The local newspaper represents the district in which it is published to the outside world.

Support your home paper liberally if it deserves support, so that it can give the best possible impression of your town and district as a field for immigration and investment.

There is big money for a new town in having a live and interesting paper.

"The Edmonton District is the best part of Canada."

Such is the British Farmer delegates unanimous report.

The farms we have for sale are the pick of the Edmonton country. They are near the railway, markets, schools, churches and neighbors and at lowest prices and on easiest terms. Come and see our descriptive list.

Those who wish to go further can themselves select 240 acres of vacant Dominion lands, which we will procure for them at $2 per acre without any residential conditions whatever. This is $1 per acre cheaper than any other land in the market, and advantage should be taken of the offer while it lasts.

DEAR SIR:

Please find enclosed $2 post office order for present year subscription to your new weekly paper in the far west. Pleased to read your energetic, stirring, patriotic articles re immigration and general welfare of your district, which you so well bring to the front. I am also much interested to see how your fine company get along. They have got a fine engine. I hope they will make good use of it when occasion offers—which let us hope won't be often. I am pleased also to say, your cancellers are a straightforward lot of men—deal very honorably with us. We did our best to suit them. Mutually satisfactory.

With kind regards to all,

The motion of Mr. Davidson in the Manitoba legislature regarding C. P. R. rates was amended by Mr. Greenwood to throw a portion of the blame for existing hard times in Manitoba on the tariff. It is strange to see a conservative leader finding fault with the C. P. R. and as strange to see a liberal leader dividing the blame as much as possible.

The MacLeod Gazette learns on good authority that the C. P. R. extension from Lethbridge to MacLeod will not be gone on with this summer.

PEACE RIVER.

Fred Brick, trader, arrived from Peace River on Tuesday with two dog teams and a lot of fur. He brought horses from Peace River to Slave lake, but came in from there with dogs. Snow is very deep in Peace River this winter and the weather has been more steadily cold than usual. The thermometer has registered 63 below. An outbreak of scarlet fever and diphtheria occurred, of which three persons in Staffbury mission settlement died. Many of the Indians were ill from it and of course could not get out to hunt, consequently less fur has been taken than might have been expected. The sickness was more severe at Slave lake than at Peace river. Rev. J. Gough Brick of Staffbury mission was very ill but has almost recovered. Last summer was very dry at Staffbury and crops, particularly root crops, were very light. The grain crop was better but not a full crop, although the sample was good. At Dunvegan only fifty miles west of Staffbury there was abundance of rain, and the crops are good. There was also plenty of rain at Slave lake 100 miles south east of Staffbury and crops were good there. Berries and beans were very numerous in Peace river last summer and the Indians did well. This winter the rabbits are commencing to die off and no doubt there will be hard times for the Indians next winter. Disease is still reported to exist amongst the H. B. herd of cattle at Spirit river, but the band is now isolated, and the disease has not spread to other bands. Only one miner worked on the river last summer, Mr. Burbank, and he did fairly well. Mr. Brick returns home on Saturday.
